

Commonwealth Organisation for Social Work statement on the death of Queen Elizabeth II

The Commonwealth Organisation for Social Work shares with others in the Commonwealth and around the world a deep sadness at the news of the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Head of the Commonwealth. We send our condolences to the members of her family and to all who are affected. Several COSW leaders have met the Queen since our formation and have seen the significance of her contribution to Commonwealth relationships. The Queen, as a person, has been an example of commitment and service which is well understood and recognised by social workers. May she rest in peace.
